SUMMER BREAK

Consider how busy you really want to make your summer “break.” Yes, it’s good to stay busy, be productive, and make the most of the time, but don’t overload. Instead, be creative about ways to prioritize your walk with the Lord, as well as ways to spend time with family and friends enjoying God’s creation and each other together.

Do things you normally couldn’t do, but also be okay doing “nothing” together in ways you can’t with the “go, go, go” of a typical school year. Emphasize quality over quantity and prioritize rest. The busier we are, the more dependent we should be on the Lord, because our hearts are more likely to be distracted and prone to wander. Don’t give up your Bible reading and prayer; double down. Dive into it all the more. Don’t give up gathering together with God’s family; make it an even higher priority.

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another...

(Hebrews 10:24-25)

2022 Art Festival & Other Artsy News (Mrs. Newbern)

Please join me in congratulating our CCS students in participation of the 2022 ACSI East Coast District Virtual Art Festival. We competed with 8 different schools from New York state all the way down to Florida. CCS had students from kindergarten-12th grade enter some amazing artwork. The attached video link shows each student how they participated in the competition. A plan for distributing ribbons will be established when I receive them.

<https://www.loom.com/share/7c9afd58c0a24094ac521690ae6a38d2>

Key for the ribbons in the video:

BEST OF SHOW
Blue = Superior
Red = Excellent
White = Good

Honorable Mention = Given by Mrs. Newbern for pieces that were not submitted into the festival.

Due to our virtual platform, the awards were given quite differently than in years past. Typically, students were awarded 13 total BEST OF SHOWS (1 from each grade). This year, they awarded 4 BEST OF SHOW ribbons total (1 per division: 1 per K-3rd, 1 per 4th-6th, 1 per 6th-8th, and 1 per 9th-12th). This year's competition was fierce!

Elementary Competition: There were a total of 103 pieces of artwork submitted from all schools at the elementary level K-6th. I want to give a Shout-Out to the following students for OUTSTANDING work:

- James Reagle had the best overall kindergarten score.
- Lila Johnson scored second best in 1st grade.
- Culbree Paschall tied for the best piece in 2nd grade.
- Hannah Etheridge & Adalynn Harmon tied each other for the best artwork in 3rd grade.

Middle & High School Competition: There were a total of 98 pieces of artwork submitted from all schools at the MS/HS level.

- I am so proud to announce that Rosalie May (7th grade) brought home (1 of the 4) BEST OF SHOW RIBBONS for grades 6-8.
- Addison Barrow had the highest 8th grade score.
- Cody Paschall scored highest in 9th grade.

I couldn't be prouder. The artwork was amazing! I'm already looking forward to making more art next year. Thank you for allowing me to teach your children! CCS students ROCK!!! #WeLoveArt

Student Council (Adviser: Mrs. Martin)

I would like to thank the Student Council of 21-22 for their hard work and dedication. They pulled off some amazing events: Salvation Army Food Drive, Pink Out, Game Days, and Spirit Week! It was a successful year for Student Council!

Beta Club (Adviser: Mrs. Newbern)

I would like to announce the 2022-2023 Beta Club officers for next year. These students were nominated by their peers and ultimately assigned these positions for their academic performance as well as displaying a servant's heart. I'm looking forward to a great year of service to the school and to our community. If you have any ideas/suggestions for service projects, I would love to hear them. 4th Grade Mystery Readers

After reaching their midpoint goal on their Boosterthon Pledge-O-Meter, 4th grade got to enjoy a short story from our very own mystery readers!

Mason Gladieux (12th) and Shane Anthony (11th) are well-known varsity basketball players at CCS, so the class was ecstatic when they found out these two guys were the ones to read to them in class. The book of choice was And to Think That I Saw It on Mulberry Street by Dr. Seuss.

NHS News (Adviser: Mrs. Smith)

Class of 2022 – Graduation Poem by Lillian Owens

We step into a new chapter today.
 Soon, the worries of homework due dates will fade away.

As the final bell rings
 As we leave the school for one last time
 Memories trickle in
 From the memories on the playground
 From the court to the field
 From the random jokes and roaring laughter of the classroom.

These are the days that will live forever in our hearts.

As there are only a matter of moments until Pomp and Circumstance begins,
 As we stand here in great anticipation
 Memories begin anew
 From memories with family
 To memories with our dearest friends
 To the memories as this ceremony begins
 This day will forever be a reminder of great endings and new, hopeful beginnings.

Kindergarten Graduation

The largest K5 class to graduate at CCS was this class! Mrs. Marlowe and Mrs. Sherron (recently the former Miss Roberson 😊) led the 35 kindergarteners through their ceremony on May 17. It was also livestreamed on Facebook. What a sweet time!

Pictured here are the two classes of 2022 – our seniors and our kindergarteners – after their cap and gown pictures. That's a lot of blue!
